David O'Toole:
U.S. District Court For The Eastern District Of Texas
104 North Third Street
Lufkin, Texas 75901

RE: Jason J. Hernandez v. Greg Abbott, et al., Civil Action No. 9:17cv23.

DEAR MR. O'TOOLE:

Today, I received document no. 40. It states:

Pursuant to the written consent of the Texas Attorney General's Office, copies of the complaint, attachments, and orders will be served electronically upon the Texas Attorney General, counsel for the defendants...

See Document No. 40 ¶ 2.

I would like to know if the counsel for defendants, supra, has waived service of summons for the defendants, or, must I still serve summons to the defendants under Rule 4, Fed. R. Civ. P.? If counsel for defendants has not waived summons for the defendants, please provide me with summons forms for each defendant, containing your signature, and the Court's seal--so that I may comply with the Rule 4 and properly serve summons to the defendants. Thank you.

Respectfully submitted,

Jason J. Hernandez
